Jacobus Energy Selects Zytax for Tax Compliance
Leading Petroleum Marketer to Reduce Compliance Risk and Improve Accuracy

Houston – May 20, 2010 – Zytax, a wholly-owned subsidiary of FuelQuest and leading supplier of indirect tax automation software, announced today a five-year contract with Jacobus Energy, Inc. Jacobus is one the nation's premier fuel marketers and distributors providing energy-related services to homes and businesses throughout the South and Midwest. Under this agreement, Jacobus will use Zytax Compliance to automate all its tax filing processes and procedures.

"Our strategy to automate tax processes is an important step for the future of our organization," said Chad Olson, VP Finance, of Jacobus Energy. "We hope to gain valuable operational efficiencies, which will allow our teams to focus on the other business initiatives that directly impact the growth of Jacobus."

Jacobus Energy and other customers choose Zytax Compliance so they can:

- Automate the end-to-end filing process from data import to electronic filing
- Comply with ever-changing rules, rates, and filing standards for all U.S. jurisdictions
- Increase consistency and accuracy of the filing process
- Improve reporting support for audits and amendments.

"We are excited to have Jacobus as a customer and adopt our industry-leading tax automation software," said Robert "Bubba" Lange, SVP of Operations at Zytax. "Jacobus understands that optimizing tax processes for greater efficiency and accuracy is essential to attaining operational excellence and driving bottom line value."

Over 700 customers have adopted Zytax solutions to calculate and file their indirect taxes. Processing $65 billion in taxes annually, Zytax is a proven leader within the energy industry.
